The Moonshiner club celebrated the

Y. M. H. A.
The Literary Circle of the Young Men's Hebrew association hold their second regular open session at their rooms to-night. All members of the Y. M. H. A. and their lady friends are invited to be present.
There were Christmas trees at nearly all the churches on Christmas Eve and crowds of happy little faces watching the distribution of love tokens.
Over two car loads of fireworks were burned in Waco during Christmas Eve and night. On both nights the city was illuminated with fireworks and last night the business part of town was a beautiful sight as seen from the hills. The rain precluding all fears of damage by fire.
Mr. Aaron Straasburg, 412 Franklin street was the recipient yesterday of a not only elegant but complete Christmas present. It was a sumptuous Christmas dinner sent in to him by friends. The dinner was superb but it was served on a large and solid silver waiter which was part of the Christmas present.
One of the employees of the News went to bed, shall we say put to bed late last night. He is very methodical and started to his work at the usual hour this morning but under the impression that he was in New Orleans, his old habitat and was going to work at the Times-Democrat.
Everything seemed strange to him and he walked the streets trying to locate Waco signs with New Orleans names. The postoffice building finally disentangled his memories and landed him safely at the News office about nine o'clock.
The Panama canal, according to the best and most impartial authority in France, The Economist Francaise, has not gained enough from its last loan, after paying interest and expenses, to enable it to continue work six months longer. -Frank Leslie's.

The Christmas holidays are the most dangerous of all the times of the year, and it is not alone the mischief lurking in highly seasoned turkeys, egg-nog, mince-pie, plum pudding and other highly seasoned food, which devour the epagastrum stomach and vicer, producing a complication of terrible diseases, but with names more terrible than the disease, but the holidays when the ubiquitous, untried and untamable boy is let loose for a season to afflict the earth with outlandish noises and to burn down woodsheds, stores, houses, etc., with Roman candles, rockets and other city destroying pyrotechnics, and to gather piles of in-

Curious?
What? Why the low prices of Xmas goods at W. P. Glenn's Book Store. Call and see. South 4th street.
The University job printing office, in the new Jones building on Franklin street, between 4th and 5th, is prepared to do all kinds of job printing at the lowest living prices. An inspection of their work and prices is solicited.
Curiosity.
Everybody should call and see the stock of holiday goods at W. P.
Glenn's book store and get prices-"Curious" how cheap they are.
A Nashville minister said in his Sunday sermon that "the woman who will occupy two seats in a street car, in violation of her neighbor's rights, may be respectable, but can have little claim to either religion or good breeding."
Edward and Mary Stearns, aged respectively 11 and 9 years, have made the journey into from Danversville, Me., to Seattle on the Pacific coast, with no other guardian than their paternal providence that is said to care for children.
In a recent fire near Tower, D. T., a girl barely 16 saved the lives of two small children by rushing through flames to their bedside, and dragging them to where she could throw them to the earth without danger, and herself keeping after.
